The Lord’s Day Morning

The First Day of May, Two Thousand Twenty-two at Ten Thirty O’Clock

As we enter the presence of the Living God, we are invited to a time of reverent preparation for worship.

*The Call to Worship - Colossians 3:16–17

“Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.”

*The Hymn No. 115 “All Creatures of Our God and King”

*The Prayer of Invocation

Silent Confession of Sin

Assurance of Pardon

“In [Christ] we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace. In him we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his will. In him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory.” (Ephesians 1:7, 11, 13-14)

Reading of the Law

“Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.” (Deuteronomy 6:4-9)
