The Lord's Day Morning

The Eleventh Day of September, Two Thousand Twenty-two at Ten Thirty O'Clock

As we enter the presence of the Living God, we are invited to a time of reverent preparation for worship.

The Call to Worship - Psalm 115:1, 9-11, 18

“Not to us, O Lord, not to us,
but to your name be the glory.
O Israel, trust in the Lord.
O house of Aaron, trust in the Lord!
You who fear the Lord, trust in the Lord!
We will bless the Lord
from this time forth and forevermore.
Praise the Lord!”

A Moment of Silent Preparation

The Hymn No. 295 “Crown Him with Many Crowns”

The Prayer of Invocation

The Corporate Reading of the Nicene Creed

*We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.*

*And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Son of God,
begotten of the Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
Very God of very God,
begotten, not made; being of one substance with the Father;
by whom all things were made;
who for us and for our salvation
came down from heaven,
and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary,*

*and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered and was buried;
and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures,
and ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father;
and he shall come again, with glory to judge both the living and the dead;
whose kingdom shall have no end.*

*And we believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son;
who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; who spoke by the prophets;
and we believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church; we acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins;
and we look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.*

The Hymn No. 498

“Jesus! What a Friend for Sinners!” vs. 1-2

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper (Please note: Grape juice is on the outermost section of the tray and wine is on the inside section).

The Heidelberg Catechism Q. 75: “How does the holy supper remind and assure you that you share in Christ’s one sacrifice on the cross and in all his benefits?”

Answer: “In this way: Christ has commanded me and all believers to eat this broken bread and to drink this cup in remembrance of him. With this command come these promises: First, as surely as I see with my eyes the bread of the Lord broken for me and the cup shared with me, so surely his body was offered and broken for me and his blood poured out for me on the cross.”

Second, as surely as I receive from the hand of him who serves, and taste with my mouth the bread and cup of the Lord, given me as sure signs of Christ’s body and blood, so surely he nourishes and refreshes my soul for eternal life with his crucified body and poured-out blood.”

The Hymn No. 498

“Jesus! What a Friend for Sinners!” vs. 3-4

The Offering: Silently thank the Lord for His providence

The Doxology No. 731

The Benediction

Welcome

We welcome in Christ’s name all who have come to worship with us this Lord’s Day! Our members will be eager to greet you after the service. If you are interested in learning more about this congregation of Christ’s Church, please feel free to speak with one of our elders following the service. They will be happy to answer questions you might have about the life and ministry of this congregation, as well as to pray with those who wish to receive Christ as their Lord and Savior.

Church Membership

If you are interested in making this branch of Christ’s Church your home, please speak to one of the elders after the service. Believers and their children who wish to join may come by Transfer of Letter from their previous congregation or by Reaffirmation of Faith.
