The Lord's Day Morning

The Fourteenth Day of May, Two Thousand Twenty-three at Ten Thirty O'clock

As we enter the presence of the Living God, we are invited to a time of reverent preparation for worship.

The Call to Worship - Psalm 150:1-2, 6

“Praise the LORD! Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty heavens! Praise him for his mighty deeds; praise him according to his excellent greatness! Let everything that has breath praise the LORD! Praise the LORD!”

The Moment of Silent Preparation

The Hymn No. 30 "Our God, Our Help in Ages Past" (vs. 1-7)*

The Prayer of Invocation

The Silent Confession of Sin

The Assurance of Pardon

“The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us.” (Psalm 103:8, 10-12).

The Corporate Reading of the Law

“Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints. Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore do not become partners with them.” (Ephesians 5:1-7)

The Corporate Reading of the Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Son of God,
begotten of the Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
Very God of very God, begotten, not made; being of one substance with the Father;
by whom all things were made;
who for us and for our salvation
came down from heaven,
and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary,
and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered and was buried;
and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father;
and he shall come again, with glory to judge both the living and the dead;
whose kingdom shall have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son;
who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified;

who spoke by the prophets;
and we believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church;
we acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins;
and we look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Scripture Reading: Acts 23:12-35
(ESV Pew Bible page 932)

The Psalm 23

The Morning Prayer

The Sermon Rev. Dr. Tyler Taber
"Under the Shepherd's Care (Part V): Our Gracious Host"
Psalm 23:5-6 (ESV Pew Bible page 458)

Minister: This is the Word of the Lord

Congregation: Thanks be to God

The Hymn No. 524 "Thy Works, Not Mine, O Christ" (vs. 1-2)

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper

*Please note: Grape juice is on the outermost section of the tray and wine is on the inside section

Westminster Larger Catechism Q. 168: What is the Lord's Supper?

A. The Lord's supper is a sacrament of the New Testament, wherein, by giving and receiving bread and wine according to the appointment of Jesus Christ, his death is showed forth; and they that worthily communicate feed upon his body and blood, to their spiritual nourishment and growth in grace; have their union and communion with him confirmed; testify and renew their thankfulness, and engagement to God, and their mutual love and fellowship each with other, as members of the same mystical body.

The Hymn No. 524 "Thy Works, Not Mine, O Christ" (vs. 3-4)

The Offering: During this time, we invite you to say a prayer of thanksgiving for God's abundant faithfulness, also declaring your trust in Him to continue to provide your daily bread.

The Doxology No. 731

*Praise God from Whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below,
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost; Amen*

The Benediction

Welcome

We welcome in Christ's name all who have come to worship with us this Lord's Day! Our members will be eager to greet you after the service. If you are interested in learning more about this congregation of Christ's Church, please feel free to speak with one of our elders following the service. They will be happy to answer questions you might have about the life and ministry of this congregation, as well as to pray with those who wish to receive Christ as their Lord and Savior.

Church Membership

If you are interested in making this branch of Christ's Church your home, please speak to one of the elders after the service. Believers and their children who wish to join may come by Transfer of Letter from their previous congregation or by Reaffirmation of Faith

Missions Highlight - CRU Ministries

Luke and Sarah Abraham, North Africa

"While we were at a hotel during our kids' Spring break, Luke received a message from our staff that 'Jonah' had just trusted Christ through a Facebook Messenger chat and was visiting Sun City for the next few hours. Since Jonah lives in a city further south, it seemed like a unique opportunity to help this new believer understand more about what he had just believed. We met at a coffee shop and talked about the Gospel. During his first few days as a believer, he read the Gospels of Matthew and John. A couple weeks later, he traveled over three hours to attend an Easter Church Service in the Capital City. Please pray for Jonah, who is still living in a city where there are almost no other Christians. We are trusting God to continue to help him to grow and to bring him in contact with other believers who live nearby."
