The Lord's Day Morning

The Twenty-Seventh Day of August, Two Thousand Twenty-three at Ten Thirty O'clock

As we enter the presence of the Living God, we are invited to a time of reverent preparation for worship.

The Call to Worship - Psalm 96:7-9

“Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength!
Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name;
bring an offering, and come into his courts!
Worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness;
tremble before him, all the earth!”

The Moment of Silent Preparation

The Hymn No. 164 "O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing"

The Prayer of Invocation

The Corporate Confession of Sin

“Almighty God and heavenly Father, we poor, miserable sinners confess that from our childhood until this very hour we have sinned against your commandments by evil thoughts, words, and works, which we cannot count. O God and Father, in your mercy and for the sake of your glory, we ask you to receive us into your grace by the forgiveness of sins. Amen.” (adapted from German Reformer John Oecolampadius, Form and Manner of the Lord's Supper, 1526).

The Assurance of Pardon

“Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.”

(Galatians 3:13; 2 Corinthians 5:20-21)

The Corporate Reading of the Law

“And God spake all these words, saying, ‘I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.

Remember the sabbath day to keep it holy.

Honour thy father and thy mother.

Thou shalt not kill.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Thou shalt not covet.” (Exodus 20:1-17)

The Reading of the Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth,

I believe in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and was buried;
he descended into hell.
The third day He arose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

For reflection this week,
Question 161 of the Westminster Larger Catechism:

161 Q. How do the sacraments become effectual means of sanctification?

A. The sacraments become effectual means of salvation, not by any power in themselves, or any virtue derived from the piety or intention of him by whom they are administered, but only by the working of the Holy Ghost, and the blessing of Christ, by whom they are instituted.
