The Lord's Day Morning

The Twenty-Eighth Day of January, Two Thousand Twenty-four at Ten Thirty O'clock

As we enter the presence of the Living God, we are invited to a time of reverent preparation for worship.

The Call to Worship – Psalm 47:1-2, 5-7

“Clap your hands, all peoples!
Shout to God with loud songs of joy!
For the LORD, the Most High, is to be feared,
a great king over all the earth.
God has gone up with a shout,
the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.
Sing praises to God, sing praises!
Sing praises to our King, sing praises!
For God is the King of all the earth;
sing praises with a psalm!”

The Moment of Silent Preparation

The Hymn No. 128 “God Moves in a Mysterious Way”

The Prayer of Invocation

The Corporate Confession of Sin

“Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin! For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you may be justified in your words and blameless in your judgment. Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me. Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.” (Psalm 51:1-5, 7, 9)

The Assurance of Pardon

“For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.”

(1 Peter 2:21-25)

The Corporate Reading of the Law

“And God spake all these words, saying, ‘I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.

Remember the sabbath day to keep it holy.

Honour thy father and thy mother.

Thou shalt not kill.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Thou shalt not covet.” (Exodus 20:1-17)

The Reading of the Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth,

I believe in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and was buried;

he descended into hell.
The third day He arose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

For reflection this week,
Questions 83 and 84 of the Westminster Larger Catechism

83 Q. What is the communion in glory with Christ which the members of the invisible church enjoy in this life?

A. The members of the invisible church have communicated to them in this life the firstfruits of glory with Christ, as they are members of him their head, and so in him are interested in that glory which he is fully possessed of;¹ and, as an earnest thereof, enjoy the sense of God's love,² peace of conscience, joy in the Holy Ghost, and hope of glory;³ as, on the contrary, sense of God's revenging wrath, horror of conscience, and a fearful expectation of judgment, are to the wicked the beginning of their torments which they shall endure after death.⁴

84 Q. Shall all men die?

A. Death being threatened as the wages of sin,⁵ it is appointed unto all men once to die;⁶ for that all have sinned.⁷

² Rom. 5:5; 2 Cor. 1:22.

³ Rom. 5:1–2; Rom. 14:17; 2 Pet. 3:18.

Missions Highlight - Rev. Davis Sweatt, Reformed University Fellowship at TTU in Lubbock

Rev. Davis Sweatt is the Campus Minister of Reformed University Fellowship at Texas Tech University. RUF strives to be a community of people from all over campus that learn more about what it means to grow together through God's word. This is an update from Rev. Sweatt:

“An early church father, Athanasius, once said, "All of the scriptures speak to us, but the psalms in particular speak for us." This semester in RUF, we will be studying several of these psalms in our Large Group time with the hope that it would provide students with a voice to share their whole emotional life to God, as well as provide space for the psalms to shape our emotions and affections of God. Please pray that God would use this time to ignite students' hearts as they wrestle with the ways God is bringing the Gospel to bear on the entirety of their lives!

We will also have several different small groups throughout the week on campus. Pray that God would use this time for students to connect with one another and grow deeper in their love of God and His word”.

Prayer Requests:

Please pray that God will use this time to continue to grow our faith in all the ways he works in RUF.

Pray that we will have lots of great participation and that we would get to know new students and invite them into our community.

We are in need of more donors! Our yearly budget has grown as more students have started coming and a new year is upon us. PLEASE consider giving any amount to RUF at Tech. This ministry will not be able to continue thriving on campus without your partnership and generosity!

Pray that RUF would make an impact in students' lives with the Gospel. Pray that God would grow our group externally as we do outreach amongst campus and that God would grow our group internally as we continue to learn what it means to follow Jesus during this season of our lives.
