The Lord's Day Morning

The Fourteenth Day of July, Two Thousand Twenty-four at Ten Thirty O'clock

As we enter the presence of the Living God, we are invited to a time of reverent preparation for worship.

The Call to Worship – Psalm 29:1-2; Psalm 113:3; Isaiah 55:6

“Ascribe to the LORD, O heavenly beings, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name;
worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness.
From the rising of the sun to its setting,
the name of the LORD is to be praised!”
Seek the LORD while he may be found;
call upon him while he is near.”

The Moment of Silent Preparation

The Psalm 85

The Prayer of Invocation

The Corporate Confession of Sin

“Almighty and Everlasting Father, we confess that we have sinned against you. We have fallen short of your glory. We have not loved you with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength. We have not loved our neighbor as ourselves. You warn that whoever keeps the whole law and stumbles at one point is guilty of all. We acknowledge our guilt. We rightly fall under your judgment. Have mercy upon us, O Lord, for Christ's sake. Blot out our transgressions. Wash us from our iniquities. Forgive us our sins. Remove our transgressions as far as the east is from the west. Cast all our sins behind your back and remember them no more. This we ask in Christ's name. Amen.” (Rom 3:23; 1 John 3:4; Rom 6:23; Matt 22:37-40; James 2:10; Psalm 51; 1 John 1:19; Psalm 103:12; Jer 31:34).

The Assurance of Pardon

“For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God.” (1 Peter 3:18)

The Corporate Reading of the Law

“Remind them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, to speak evil of no one, to avoid quarreling, to be gentle, and to show perfect courtesy toward all people. For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another. But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.” (Titus 3:1-7)

The Reading of the Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,

I believe in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and was buried;
he descended into hell.
The third day He arose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,

the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

For reflection this week,
Question 1 of the Heidelberg Catechism

1. Q. What is your only comfort in life and death?

A. That I am not my own,[1] but belong with body and soul, both in life and in death,[2] to my faithful Saviour Jesus Christ.[3] He has fully paid for all my sins with His precious blood, and has set me free from all the power of the devil.[5] He also preserves me in such a way[6] that without the will of my heavenly Father not a hair can fall from my head;[7] indeed, all things must work together for my salvation.[8] Therefore, by His Holy Spirit He also assures me of eternal life[9] and makes me heartily willing and ready from now on to live for Him.[10]
