The Lord's Day Morning

The Third Day of November, Two Thousand Twenty-four at Ten Thirty O'clock

As we enter the presence of the Living God, we are invited to a time of reverent preparation for worship.

The Welcome

The Salutation

"Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." (Phil 1:2)

The Announcements

The Call to Worship – 1 Chronicles 16:35-36

“Save us, O God of our salvation,
and gather and deliver us from among the nations,
that we may give thanks to your holy name
and glory in your praise.

Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting!”

Then all the people said, “Amen!” and praised the LORD.”

The Prayer of Invocation

The Corporate Confession of Sin

“Merciful Father, we humble ourselves before your great Majesty against which we have frequently and grievously sinned. We acknowledge that we deserve nothing less than eternal death. We are unclean before you. We continually transgress your commandments, failing to do what you've commanded us to do, and doing that which you've expressly forbidden. We acknowledge our waywardness, and are heartily sorry for our sins. We confess that our iniquities are innumerable. We know that our debt is so great that we could never repay it. But we know, O Lord, that you do not desire the death of the sinner, but rather that he should turn to you and live. We call upon you in repentance, trusting in our Mediator, Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Have mercy upon us. Forgive us our transgressions. Wash us in the pure fountain of Christ's blood. Cover us with his innocence and righteousness. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen." (adapted from the Dutch Reformed Psalter, 1566)

The Assurance of Pardon

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. In [Christ] we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace." (John 3:16-17; Ephesians 1:7)

The Corporate Reading of the Law

"The end of all things is at hand; therefore be self-controlled and sober-minded for the sake of your prayers. Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. Show hospitality to one another without grumbling. As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies—in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen." (1 Peter 4:7–11)

The Offering: During this time, we invite you to say a prayer of thanksgiving for God's abundant faithfulness, also declaring your trust in Him to continue to provide your daily bread.

The Doxology (OLD HUNDREDTH)

No. 731

*Praise God from Whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen*
