The Lord's Day Morning

The Second Day of March, Two Thousand Twenty-five at Ten Thirty O'clock

As we enter the presence of the Living God, we are invited to a time of reverent preparation for worship.

The Welcome

The Salutation – Philippians 1:2

“Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.”

The Announcements

The Call to Worship – Isaiah 58:13-14

“Call the Sabbath a delight and the holy day of the LORD honorable;
if you honor it, not going your own ways,
or seeking your own pleasure, or talking idly;
then you shall take delight in the LORD,
and I will make you ride on the heights of the earth;
I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father,
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

The Moment of Silent Preparation

The Hymn

All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name

No. 296

CORONATION

The Prayer of Invocation

The Corporate Confession of Sin

“Lord God, eternal and Almighty Father, we confess and acknowledge without pretense before your holy majesty that we are poor sinners, conceived and born in iniquity and corruption. We are prone to do what is evil. We are incapable of any good apart from your grace. And in our depravity we endlessly transgress your holy commandments. Father, we are displeased with ourselves for having offended you, and we long for your grace to relieve our distress. May you, therefore, have mercy upon us, most gentle and merciful Father, in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. As you blot out our vices and blemishes, extend and increase the graces of your Holy Spirit to us day by day, so that we might acknowledge our sin with all our heart, and so that we might feel the sorrow that gives birth to true repentance. May you produce in us the fruits of righteousness which are pleasing to you, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.” (adapted from John Calvin, Protestant Reformer, 1509-1564)

The Assurance of Pardon

“Blessed is the one whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. Blessed is the man against whom the LORD counts no iniquity. I acknowledged my sin to you, and I did not cover my iniquity; I said, ‘I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,’ and you forgave the iniquity of my sin.” (Psalm 32:1-2, 5)

The Corporate Reading of the Law

“Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.” (Hebrews 10:19-25)

The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth,

I believe in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and was buried;
he descended into hell.
The third day He arose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.
