Thou shalt have no other gods before me.
Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image.
Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain.
Remember the sabbath day to keep it holy.
Honour thy father and thy mother.
Thou shalt not kill.
Thou shalt not commit adultery.
Thou shalt not steal.
Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
Thou shalt not covet.'" (Exodus 20:1-17, abridged)

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, begotten of the Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
Very God of very God,
begotten, not made;
being of one substance with the Father;
by whom all things were made;
who for us and for our salvation
came down from heaven,
and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary,
and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered and was buried;
and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures,
and ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father;
and he shall come again, with glory

to judge both the living and the dead;
whose kingdom shall have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son;
who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified;
who spoke by the prophets;
and we believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church;
we acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins;
and we look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Reformation Day

by Rev. Andrew Fortenberry

It may be a cliché, but history is His story. God, who "foreordained whatsoever comes to pass" (WSC 7), is sovereign over the events, ideas, and people of history. We can study history as God's providence throughout time. When we consider the period of the Reformation, God's wisdom, goodness, and grace to His Church is on clear display.

On October 31, 1517, Martin Luther, the German monk, posted his 95 Theses on the church door in Wittenberg. He was protesting abusive practices and false teachings in the Roman Catholic Church and intended to spark dialogue. What it sparked was a full-blown reformation and the formation of Protestantism.

"Through Luther's bold words, the Holy Spirit blew into flame the smoldering coals of other movements across Europe, and the land which lay in darkness for so long began to grow bright under the uncovered beauty of God's Word…The Reformation possessed as its heartbeat a devotion to the pure truth of the Holy Scriptures, especially manifest in the passionate exposition of the biblical doctrines of salvation by grace, true worship, and the pursuit of holiness." (Beeke)

Isn't this something worth celebrating in joyful remembrance and thanksgiving? Do you love God's Word? Do you love the gospel of justification by grace through faith in Christ? Do you love simple, reverent, biblical worship? Do you love sincere saints seeking, by God's grace, to live God-honoring lives according to God's Word and not according to man-made traditions and commandments? Do you love the Protestant Confessions and Catechisms? Then, let us praise God for the Reformers and for how He used them to bring about Reformation and Revival. And let us earnestly pray that He would do the same in our own days. Happy Reformation Day!
